

Sentravest Publishing Inc.

Sentravest Publishing Inc. is a knowledge management company that develops and publishes financial analysis apps and e-books to assist and educate investors, support financial analysis, and enable informed investment decisions.

Sentravest Publishing Inc. originated from over 30 years' consulting and executive experience leading significant projects in real estate acquisition and management, strategic financial oversight in both the public and private sectors, information technology infrastructure development, legislative development to support significant tax policy initiatives, private sector merger/acquisition consultation, and international regulatory and banking compliance for the securities industry.

Building on that foundation, Sentravest Publishing Inc. is focused on delivering useful, easy to use, and informative products and services to those who seek to better understand investment opportunities and want to develop the ability to make informed investment decisions.
